JUDSON R. A. MEETING

The weekly meeting of the Judson Chapter Royal Ambassadors was called to order Monday afternoon by Ambassador-in-chief Jack Averitt at 4:00 o'clock. At this time a real short business meeting was held, due to initiation ceremonies that had been planned by Mr. Donaldson, assisted by our chief counsellor, Miss Eliza Liffey. In spite of the threatening weather, the thirteen (a very unlikely number for such an occasion as this) candidates were led from the church by the charter members to the Masonic hall, and what went on there, no one, not even Dr. Peebles, will tell! But from the looks of most of those boys after they came out, they must have gotten the "worst end of the bargain." Many thanks to "Mr. Pete." We would like to have you join us and you may rest assured that we will give you a "dose of your own medicine."

45-50 PROPOSITION That organized protest against the execution of the seven negroes at Scottsboro, Ala., for the outrage upon a couple of white girls, is at least a 45-50 proposition. It is protested that the negroes are being railroaded to their punishment because of their color. On the other hand, the great imbalance about their execution comes from the same sentiment. Which makes it about even all around. The color of the boys ought not to save them, since there is not the slightest doubt of their guilt.

POINTS OUT CAUSES OF PRESENT CRISIS JUDGE STRANGE SAYS ROADS, "C"URCHES AND SCHOOLS ARE AT BOTTOM OF TROUBLE.

In his charge to the grand jury at the opening of the April term of superior court Monday morning, Judge H. B. Strange took occasion to reiterate his well-known stand on the subject of governmental extravagance. He urged schools, churches and churches among the causes for the present state of depression. Consolidated schools, he averred, are responsible for a large part of the tax burden which has grown greater than the people can bear.

He declared that there ought to be a school within walking distance of every child, and that the expense of fine school houses and truck operation ought not to be placed upon the people.

"I believe in education," he said, "but not at the expense of those who are hungry and unable to pay their taxes."

He asserted that the tax costs of the nation now approximate fifteen billion dollars for all purposes, and that the tax per individual averages $120 per year; federal taxes $40 and Howard, class president.

He declared that taxes paid by Georgians amounted to $211,000,000 annually, $118,000,000 of which is for state and local purposes.

"This tax," he declared, "costs Georgians 1,000,000 bales of cotton annually. Fifty thousand bales of cotton will not pay the taxes which people of Bulloch county are asked for," he declared. He said that $20,000,000 ought to build all the paved roads Georgia needs, and yet the state spends more than that amount annually, while teachers are going unpaid.

He declared that 2 cents of the gas tax ought to be applied to the payment of school teachers.

He repeated the alleged extravagance of the present state administration, which he said, has increased the number of attorneys general from one to five.

He called attention to a statement that in one district of Bulloch county less than 34 per cent of last year's taxes have been paid, and that the bulk of the tax goes for school purposes.

Because she insists that 322 pounds is too much to love, Mrs. Charlotte Samuels of New York City is in Reno, Nev., seeking a divorce from her heavy husband.

GOVERNOR'S RACE FLORIDA TEAM TO PLAY TEACHERS INDICATIONS ARE THE FIELD WILL BE FULL OF ASPIRANTS TO SUCCEED RUSSELL.

Atlanta, April 25.—Governor Russell's definite removal from the field today left the race for the governorship, to be decided this fall, a wide-open affair.

The possibility that the governor would seek re-election instead of offering for the unexpired term of Senator William J. Harris, observers said, had caused many prospective candidates to delay definite announcement until the chief executive had made his decision.

Governor Russell's announcement that he will be a candidate for the unexpired Harris term leaves an open field and it was reported in the capital that within the next few days a number will definitely announce.

It has been considered certain for some time by those supposed to be "in the know" that Eugene Talmadge, commissioner of agriculture, would be a gubernatorial candidate, although the commissioner himself has been somewhat evasive of the subject, except to say that he was considering it. Capital circles today carried the news of a more definite nature concerning the future political aspirations of John I. Kelley, Lawrenceville, an assistant attorney general and an appointee of Governor Russell. Mr. Kelley, like Commissioner Talmadge, said that he was seriously considering the matter.

STRICKLAND BACK TO FACE CHARGES WILL FACE CHARGES OF EMBEZZLEMENT WHICH HAVE BEEN STANDING SEVEN YEARS

The arrest of Arney H. Strickland in Concord, N. C., and his return to Statesboro Wednesday, recalls a case which was of more than ordinary interest here seven years ago.

Mr. Strickland, then about thirty-five years of age, had been confidential office man of J. R. Simmons, the largest business man in this section, prior to Mr. Simmons' death in December, 1924. By his will, Mr. Strickland left his mercantile business to his daughter, Mrs. F. N. Grimes. In the early days of her ownership, Mr. Strickland disappeared. An audit of the store's books is said to have disclosed gross irregularities extending over a period of several months.

There also turned up notes at a bank which it was alleged had been negotiated by Strickland in the name of R. Simmons. Suits over the payment of these notes dragged through the courts for a long time and were finally compromised. It is said that the total discrepancies charged to Strickland approximated between $30,000 and $40,000.

While there have been rumors that his whereabouts were known for the past several years, no steps had been taken looking to his return for trial till last fall Sheriff Tillman, prompted by the presence of a bench warrant and indictment which had existed for the past seven years, began a quiet search for Strickland.

His arrest in North Carolina Tuesday was the outcome of the sheriff's activity. Loren Durden, deputized for that purpose, went after him and returned Wednesday afternoon. He promptly gave bond and will face trial whenever the state selects to call the case.

Mr. Strickland is a native of Tattnall county and a World War veteran.
